

PROPERTY WAS OBTAINED BY FRAUD, CHARGE

F. C. Hunnan and Manuel Flores Arrested in an $80,000 Realty Deal.

Charged by indictment with fraudulent obtaining of property valued at $80,000, owned by Mrs. M. F. Schaff, Manuel Flores and F. C. Hunnan were arrested by the sheriff's department Friday afternoon. Each was released after furnishing a $2000 bond. G. W. Franklin, who was indicted jointly with the other two defendants, was arrested at Oklahoma City, Okla., according to advices at the sheriff's department. It is stated that Franklin, in custody of an officer, is en route to El Paso. He is expected to arrive Saturday. Franklin's bond has been placed at $5000.

Much Property Involved.

Deeds to Mrs. Schaff's property are alleged to have been obtained by fraudulent representations. The property described in 200 acres in Palo Pinto county, Tex., three houses in Oklahoma City; two tracts of land, one 100 acres and the other 150 acres, at Moore, Tex.; two lots at Fort Worth, Texas, and the Alamo hotel at Oklahoma City. The indictment alleges that the deeds to the property are in the possession of Franklin and that reason the grand jurors are unable to give a better description of the property.

The indictment further alleges that Flores and Hunnan represented to Mrs. Schaff that Franklin was the owner of a tract of land in Mexico known as the Lajas or Yonce de Leon tract, located in the Reynon district, Chihuahua. The tract, it was alleged, contains 174,375 acres.

Transfer a Fraud, Charge. It was represented, the indictment charges, that Franklin had the right to convey title to the Mexican tract. The title, the allegations are, was conveyed to Mrs. Schaff, who was induced to give deeds to her lands at consideration for it. The indictment alleges that Franklin did not have title to the Mexican tract.

DIRECTORS PRESENT GIFT TO KRAKAUERS

A cut glass flower holder on a silver tray was presented Friday as a wedding present to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Krakauer by directors of the chamber of commerce, who met at the association's building, 200 Grand, in a clever and humorous speech, made the presentation. Mr. Krakauer is president of the organization and was married last week.

The chamber of commerce building, owned by Frank Powers, was released for a term of five years by the directors. The Alhambra theater was elected to membership, going into class C.

A campaign to improve the electric lighting system on San Francisco street was inaugurated by the directors, who have taken up the matter with the El Paso Electric Railway Co. Present at the meeting were Robert Krakauer, Burt Orndorff, George L. Baron, James F. Primm, Charles Kline and Henry S. Beach.

LEGISLATURE OF COLORADO FINDS WORK FINISHED

Governor Is Given Authority to Close Saloons and Stop Firearm Sales.

Denver, Colo., May 16.—The adoption of conference committee reports on the bills giving the governor authority to close saloons and prohibit the sale and purchase of fire arms in times of internal disorder today marked the closing hours of the extra session of the state legislature, which convened on May 14. The bills were passed by the governor, who is authorized to pay out of the state treasury $1,000,000 to pay past and future expenses of the Colorado national guard on strike duty.

Two measures failed of passage, the bill for a constitutional amendment for the enactment of a compulsory arbitration law and the establishment of a state police force.

POLICE ASKED TO FIND MISSING MEN

Police chief L. N. Davis is asked to locate three missing men. Henry Hale, of Rodeo, N. M., wants to find his brother, W. C. Hale, who, he writes, left Rodeo on May 5 to come to El Paso. It was his brother's intention, the writer states, to go to Mexico for the purpose of purchasing stock. The missing man is said to have been accompanied by Jesse Washburn.

Mrs. Robert Bennett, of Seattle, Wash., wants to locate her husband. The last time she heard from him was on March 16 last. Mrs. Bennett said her husband then wrote that he would soon be on his way to Seattle.

Mrs. B. Alstrom, living at 123 West Eaton street, Cripple Creek, Colo., wants to find her son, Chester Alstrom. She writes that the missing man was in El Paso two years ago.

Double Page Maxwell Ad Covers the Southwest

ONE of the largest automobile advertisements ever published appears in another section of The Herald today. The Maxwell Motor Car company and its wide-spread El Paso representative, W. E. Groendyke, selected The Herald for this big piece of publicity by reason of The Herald's strong circulation, not only in El Paso but throughout western Texas, New Mexico, and Arizona. In 500 of the best towns in the southwest practically every automobile owner sees The Herald. This is natural. The strong, progressive, prosperous people of any community are the automobile owners, and the strong and progressive find The Herald essential to their happiness.

Practically every El Paso automobile license is held in the name of a Herald reader.

Automobile owners throughout the southwest all read with especial interest the big Week-End Herald with its two solid pages of automobile news, mechanical hints, road maps and touring guides. They look to The Herald for pointers on the new model, and they come to The Herald when they want to buy a new car or to sell an old one.
